Rules and Manners of Japan

- Walking on the street
  - When walking on a busy street, be careful not to block the path.
  - Try not to make too much noise because most areas around shrines and temples are residential areas.
  - Don't leave any waste or garbage in the precincts – please bring it home with you.
  - It is not allowed to walk in possession of a knife or other such dangerous objects.
  - When taking a picture of someone, please obtain permission first.
- In the restroom
  - Please use the toilets marked as ♿ on the map (backside).
  - Please avoid entering temples and restaurants only for using the toilet.
  - After usage, please flush the toilet.
- Traveling by bus
  - At the bus stop, line up and respect the order of the line.
  - When on the bus, if you are noisy you won't hear the bus driver announcing information. Try not to make too much noise on the bus.
- Visiting temples and shrines
  - Inside the temple, stay quiet.
  - As a rule, do not smoke.
  - To take a picture of a Buddhist statue, you must obtain permission first.
  - Be careful not to damage any plants.
  - When entering the main hall for zazen meditation and praying, shorts and sportswear are not allowed.
